

Second, it will provide for the people of this province not only thousands of jobs and billions in economic activity, but it will ensure for stable rates electricity rates not dependant on the price of oil.

And lastly, we finally have a strategic route into the Maritime and US markets, avoiding the stranglehold of Quebec.

The time is right. The agreement is right. And the people of this province will reap the benefits for years to come.

Thank you.