

February 21, 2011

Lower Churchill Hydroelectric Project

Registration for Hearings / Grand Riverkeeper Labrador, Inc.

March 4th Grand Riverkeeper Labrador, Inc. (GRK) Opening Remarks and Video Presentation: Video is 18 minutes long, so will need a bit of an extension, i.e. 20 minutes rather than 15! Anytime between 7pm and 10pm: Will also need overhead projector and screen to project video.

March 5th, Grand Riverkeeper Labrador, Inc. 15 Min presentation on several aspects of the Project: To be announced.-- Power Point Presentation.

March 7th, GRK, on need purpose and alternatives, 30 min. Power Point Presentation

Phil Raphals for GRK on need, purpose and alternatives. 30 min. Mr. Raphals is Executive Director and Co-founder of the Helios Centre in Montreal, an independent, non-profit research group, Chair of the advisory committee for renewable energies of the Low Impact Hydropower Institute (LIHI) in the US and author of a report titled "Restructured Rivers, Hydropower in the Era of Competitive Markets"

March 8th, GRK member or Phil Raphals, follow up on need, purpose and alternatives. 30 min

March 9th, GRK, Economic Impacts -Power Point Presentation.

March 10th, GRK, on Reservoir preparation, Flow Regimes. Power Point Presentation.

March 16th, GRK, Fish and Fish Habitat, Mercury, health study, sedimentation-erosion, water quality. Power Point Presentation.

March 18th, GRK, Wetlands, Biodiversity, mitigation. Power Point Presentation.

March 29th, GRK, (Dr. Brenda Beck for GRK, social and cultural impacts, resource use. Already requested to present via video medium.)

March 30th, GRK, Monitoring and Follow-up- Power Point Presentation

March 31st, GRK, Cumulative effects, Precautionary Principle, Sustainability, Significance. – Power Point Presentation

April 1st, GRK, Ashkui, -Power Point Presentation

(Dr. Murray Rudd for GRK, need, purpose, alternatives, economics and sustainability. Already registered)

(Tom Adams for GRK, { Tom Adams Energy, Toronto, Ontario} , message already sent re registration. Subject of Presentation will be forwarded in a few days.)

April 5th GRK, (Dr. Nejem Raheem, need, purpose, alternatives, economics and sustainability, St. John's. Already registered with a request for teleconference in the event travel to St. John's is not possible.)

April 14th, Clarice Blake Rudkowski for GRK, Closing Remarks.

April 15th, Roberta Frampton Benefiel for GRK, Closing Remarks.