Lance

Gilbert also mentioned that Thon was talking about expanding the Deloitte scope to include organization - I told Gilbert that that was not on we are not going backwards and that Deloitte should focus on getting the organization we have to work together

So just another thing to look out for and be prepared to block if it creeps into their thinking

Fine

I've got this. The scope has already been agreed and just needs tweaking. I'll engage Normand and get this going. Any hiccups I'll let you know but I suspect like everything else I'll push this forward without folks even realizing its happening.
