Mr. Larry Pittman
Human Resources Manager
Astaldi Canada Inc.
69 Elizabeth Ave.
St. John's, NL A1A 1W8

Dear Mr. Pittman:

Re: Terms of Engagement

We are writing further to our telephone discussion and email and your request that Stewart McKelvey ("Stewart McKelvey" or "the Firm") represent you in connection with a Claim by INNU of Improper Layoff Under IBA (the "Matter"). We greatly appreciate the opportunity to be of service.

Our terms of engagement in this Matter are set out below.

Identity of Client

We confirm that in this Matter, Astaldi Canada Inc. ("Astaldi" or "you") is our client, and is the only party with whom Stewart McKelvey will have a solicitor-client relationship in connection with the Matter.

Where we are retained to represent a corporation or organization, our solicitor-client duties are owed solely to the corporation or organization. Our representation of Astaldi does not include the representation of related persons or entities, such as a parent company, subsidiaries, affiliates, or shareholders, directors, officers, or employees.

Description of Services

Astaldi has engaged us to provide the legal services in connection with:

Labour and employment advice (the "Services")

We will provide you with legal services which in our professional judgment are reasonably necessary and appropriate to carry out the Services. Once the Services have been completed, we shall have no responsibility to advise you as to subsequent legal developments relating to this Matter.

If at any time you wish to modify the Services, please contact the undersigned. At such time, any changes to these terms will be mutually agreed and confirmed in writing.

Preservation of Confidentiality

We shall not disclose your confidential information, subject only to disclosure required by law including our governing professional conduct rules.

Because we owe this duty to all of our clients, we will not disclose to you information we hold in confidence for others (even where such confidential information would be relevant to our representation of you) or disclose to others information we hold in confidence for you (even where such confidential information may be relevant to our representation of those others).

Conflicts of Interest

Based on the names you have identified as being involved with this Matter, we have conducted a search of our client database for any conflicts of interest which might prevent us from representing you in this Matter. No such conflicts were identified and we are satisfied we are able to accept this engagement.

We may subsequently receive further information (such as with respect to the involvement or potential involvement of other parties not reasonably known to us at the time of our conflicts search), which raises a conflict of interest issue of which we were previously unaware. In such case, we will review our professional obligations to determine whether or not we are able to continue to represent you in this Matter.

Please let us know immediately if there are any other names that we should search in connection with this Matter or in the future if you become aware of any changes or additions to the identified names. We are relying on you to let us know of any other parties who become involved in this Matter, including any parties whose interests may be adverse to yours.

In the event we are no longer representing you, in accordance with the governing professional conduct rules, we may represent another client in any matter that is adverse to your interests, provided that (i) the other matter is not the same as or related to the matter in which we previously represented you and (ii) we protect your relevant confidential information.

Our Service Team

The lawyer primarily responsible for handling this Matter and reporting to you is Harold M. Smith, Q.C. In carrying out the Services, we will draw on the necessary resources of the Firm in order to handle this Matter properly.

Hourly Rates

Our fee will be based upon the hourly rates for the lawyers and staff assigned to this Matter plus disbursements and taxes. The current billing rates for the above service team are:

| Harold M. Smith, Q.C. | $415.00 hourly rate |

Other lawyers and staff who may work on this Matter also will be billed at their current hourly rates. Our rates are reviewed annually and any changes are implemented effective January 1 of each year. Rate changes will apply from their effective date.

Accounts

We will render statements of account on a monthly basis and at the completion of the services described in a matter. Our accounts will detail the amount of our fees (including fees for services by paralegals, articled clerks and/or students as applicable), other charges (e.g. photocopies, prints, scans, stationary/book binding/seals, fax and overtime staff as appropriate), and disbursements paid or to be paid to third parties. Our accounts are payable on receipt.

Accounts of outside experts or third parties engaged further to your instructions will be billed to you directly. If we are unable to arrange such direct billing, we will forward such accounts to you for payment or at our discretion remit payment and invoice you accordingly, either at the time of our payment of such accounts or at the time of our regular billing. You are responsible for the timely payment of all such third party accounts incurred by us on your behalf in carrying out the engagement.

Communications

We will keep you informed of the progress and developments in this Matter on a timely basis. If at any time you have any questions or concerns regarding the Matter or our service, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned or the Regional Managing Partner.

As appropriate, we will utilize mail, courier and electronic modes of communication. While we endeavour to ensure that our electronic communications including email and documents will be virus free, we make no warranty in that regard. This letter confirms your consent to our use of unencrypted electronic communications, including confidential documents.

In carrying out this engagement, you may provide to us and we may collect, use, and disclose personal information that is subject to privacy protection laws. Such collection, use and disclosure shall be in accordance with our Privacy Policy (accessible at www.stewartmckelvey.com)

Termination of Engagement

You may terminate our engagement for any reason upon written notice. On such termination, we will render our final account and all unpaid legal fees and disbursements shall become immediately due and payable.

Subject to our professional and ethical obligations, we may terminate our legal representation of you prior to the completion of this engagement for any reason including as a result of conflicts of interest that arise or unpaid legal fees or disbursements.

Unless this engagement has been previously terminated or we agree otherwise in writing, our representation of you will cease upon completion of our work on this Matter. If upon termination or completion of the Matter you wish to have documentation returned to you, please advise us. Otherwise, any documentation that you have provided to us and the work product completed for you will be dealt with in accordance with our records retention policies.

Governing Law

This engagement shall be governed by the laws of the province of Newfoundland and Labrador and the federal laws of Canada.

Agreement

Please confirm your agreement to the foregoing terms of engagement by signing this letter and return the signed copy to my attention.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Yours very truly,

Stewart McKelvey

Harold M. Smith

The Undersigned hereby acknowledges and agrees to the foregoing terms of engagement.

Dear Mr. Porru:

Re: SM038131-13
Termination of Lawrence (Larry) Pittman

We are writing with respect to our letter to you dated August 4, 2017 (sent by email on August 11, 2017), which included our Invoice # 90604378 in regards to the above-noted matter.

In the above mentioned letter, we indicated that the invoice enclosed with the letter was our "final" account. Unfortunately, it has come to our attention that our Accounting Department, in Halifax, did not post all disbursements for this matter to the account until after the above invoice was produced. Therefore we now enclose Invoice # 90612959 with the additional charges for photocopies.

We trust the enclosed is in order. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Yours very truly,

Stewart McKelvey

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

3. WARRANTIES

In addition to all warranties, expressed and implied, set forth in Canadian Statutes, which warranties Seller hereby makes to Buyer, Seller further warrants that the goods shall be free from defects in material and/or workmanship and that they conform to all applicable specifications, drawings, samples. All warranties and representations herein expressly made or incorporated by reference shall inure to the benefit of Buyer and its successors or assigns. 4. ASSURANCES OF PERFORMANCE

In addition to any other assurances of performance to which Buyer may be entitled under law, Buyer, its designee and/or its Principal shall have the rights to make such inspections of the Seller s facilities and progress of work and/or otherwise make such inquiries of Seller and/or Seller s suppliers or subcontractors to assure themselves that Seller shall be in a position to perform its obligations under the Agreement. Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

Should the Seller fail to perform in strict accordance with the Prime Contract, this Agreement where or as Buyer may so direct, or should the Seller become insolvent, unable to or fail to pay its obligations as they mature, or, in any other respect, fail, in the opinion of Buyer to properly prosecute and perform any part of its works, fail to exert its best performance efforts, be involved in labor disputes, or be terminated under any other contract with Buyer, then the Seller may be deemed by Buyer to have materially breached this Agreement. In case of a breach, as indicated in any part of this Agreement or as might otherwise be determined by law, then Buyer may, at its discretion, terminate this Agreement, or any part thereof by giving written notice thereof to the Seller.

The Seller, on termination, will be deemed to have offered to Buyer an assignment of all of its subcontracts and purchase orders relating to this Project. Buyer may, at its discretion, do whatever is necessary to assure performance of any terminated work, and to take such action, if necessary in the Seller s name. Buyer may withhold from Seller any monies due or to become due under this or any other Agreement to offset the damages incurred or possibly incurred as a result from Seller's breach or threatened breach.

6. CLAIMS

Buyer may, in its discretion, and upon the written request of the Seller, offer reasonable assistance with respect to any affirmative claims by the Seller, (against a party other than Buyer) arising in connection with this Agreement provided Seller is not in default hereunder. In such event, the Seller shall pay all costs attributable thereto and shall render all assistance requested by Buyer, if any. The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

Subject: Letters to the RDTC / CONFIDENTIAL

Confidential

Good day David, I have drafted the following two letters to be sent to the RDTC. In order for me to move forward I need your help to make sure I follow the proper protocol. I am also looking for your support to move forward on these issues.

I am presently in Italy on Business but you can give me a call anytime.

Take care

LETTER #1

Dear Mr. King:

It has been brought to Astaldi's attention during a recent arbitration that the Collective Unions may have been dispatching workers that do not meet Astaldi's worker qualifications.

Astaldi has made repeated requests to the Unions to provide copies of applicable worker certifications prior to dispatch. To date there has been no co-operation and Astaldi is left to determine the skills and ability only once the individual arrived on site.

The Council of Unions bears a responsibility to dispatch qualified workers as per Article 7.08 b) i), ii), and c) of the Collective Agreement. Accordingly, we are requesting the RDTC audit Collective Unions on their dispatch practices to ascertain if the Astaldi worker requests were filled with the skill requirement requested for the individual members dispatched.

Article 5.02 of the Collective Agreement places exclusive responsibility to determine qualifications of all employees on the contractor. The Collective Unions have the initial responsibility is to insure that it is dispatching workers that meets the worker request requirement. There is no allowance in the agreement for the Unions to select and dispatch members that do not meet the Request qualifications.

We require a response to this letter by January 29th, 2018. Without a reasonable response Astaldi will invoke its rights as listed in Article 15.03 to file a grievance against the RDTC.

If you have any questions or would like to set up a meeting to discuss the above please feel free to contact me.

LETTER #2

Dear Mr. King:

I am writing to make you aware of an issue with relation to dispatch of workers by the Council of Union members.

As of September 28th, 2017 Astaldi has spent a total of $2,035,500.00 for site pre-access testing. Pre- access testing was implemented to make sure that all workers dispatched to Astaldi were fit to perform the work they were requested for and to makes sure that they were not putting themselves or their fellow workers at risk of injury.

Of the 6,900 Union members that were dispatched to Astaldi from the Collective Unions 1,788 individuals were not able to meet the fitness to work dispatch requirement .

The Council of Unions bears an expressed responsibility to dispatch fit workers as per Article 10.01, 10.02 and 10.03 and Article 14.02 (a) and (d) of the Collective Agreement.

Astaldi's direct cost is $295.00 per test and that multiplied by the 1,788 additional tests equals $529,248.00 in additional direct costs. This does not take into consideration the cost impacts to operations and production due to not having the worker dispatched on time to meet the requisition date requirement.

Astaldi is requesting to be reimbursed from the Council of Unions for all costs it incurred for the additional pre-screening testing.

We require a response no later than January 29th, 2018. Without a reasonable response Astaldi will invoke its rights as listed in Article 15.03 to file a grievance against the RDTC.

If you have any questions or would like to set up a meeting to discuss the above please feel free to contact me.

Dear Mr. O' Brien:

Contractor acknowledges receipt of "Updated Drug and Alcohol Standard". Contractor has forwarded the Updated Standard to Legal Counsel, Labour Relations and our third party testing provider to ensure that the new standard can be met, and to identify any challenges and/or cost implications.

At this time, Contractor preliminary reviews consider it advisable to notify Company that this new Standard is a significantly more stringent requirement than the "Canadian Model" and that any repercussions for the new Standard would lie with Company, including, but not limited to; grievances, wage lost benefits, treatments, testing costs and any and all legal costs.

Sincerely,

Objet : ASTALDI - MUSKRAT FALL PROJECT - REPORT OF RELEASE OF HOLDBACK -

Hi All,

We have received a request from the client concerning the potential savings if the percentage of the 'Release of Holdback' bond decreased from 10% to 5% for the rest of the contract duration. If we calculate with the information provided by Mr. FABRIZIO TONUCCI CFO of Astaldi Canada, dated December 31st, 2017, Astaldi would be entitled to a credit of 212 849$ further to the following calculation:

|---|---|
| Premium representing 10% of the contract amount at 10$/1 000 | $6 032 859.00 |
| Premium representing 5% of the contract amount at 10$/1 000 | ($5,833,958.00) |

Potential savings beginning December 31st, 2017 $198,901.00

Note: This calculation is based on the fact that the final contract amount will not be again modified.

Mr. Tonucci would like your approval on this credit before negotiating with Nalcor.

I await your comments.

Best Regards,

Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods & Services shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

3. WARRANTIES

4. ASSURANCES OF PERFORMANCE

Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

Should the Seller fail to perform in strict accordance with the Prime Contract, this Agreement where or as Buyer may so direct, or should the Seller become insolvent, unable to or fail to pay its obligations as they mature, or, in any other respect, fail, in the opinion of Buyer to properly prosecute and perform any part of its works, fail to exert its best performance efforts, be involved in labor disputes, or be terminated under any other contract with Buyer, then the Seller may be deemed by Buyer to have materially breached this Agreement. In case of a breach, as indicated in any part of this Agreement or as might otherwise be determined by law, then Buyer may, at its discretion, terminate this Agreement, or any part thereof by giving written notice thereof to the Seller.

The Seller, on termination, will be deemed to have offered to Buyer an assignment of all of its subcontracts and purchase orders relating to this Project. Buyer may, at its discretion, do whatever is necessary to assure performance of any terminated work, and to take such action, if necessary in the Seller s name. Buyer may withhold from Seller any monies due or to become due under this or any other Agreement to offset the damages incurred or possibly incurred as a result from Seller's breach or threatened breach.

6. CLAIMS

Buyer may, in its discretion, and upon the written request of the Seller, offer reasonable assistance with respect to any affirmative claims by the Seller, (against a party other than Buyer) arising in connection with this Agreement provided Seller is not in default hereunder. In such event, the Seller shall pay all costs attributable thereto and shall render all assistance requested by Buyer, if any. The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

The Seller hereby acknowledges that it has carefully reviewed and examined this Agreement with all of its attachments, and all other documents directly or indirectly relating to this Agreement including without limitation, the Prime Contract and that any and all prior ambiguities and discrepancies have previously been clarified and /or corrected. The Seller agrees that it will not make any claim or demand upon Buyer based upon or arising out of any misunderstanding or misconception on its part of the provisions and requirements of the Prime Contract or the Agreement. Delivery of Goods & Services shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principai ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods & Services shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

PLEASE:
ATTACH SIGNED PROOF OF SERVICE RENDERED/COMPLETED,
IN ADDITION TO A SIGNED COPY OF THE ASTALDI CANADA PURCHASE ORDER, WHEN SUBMITTING INVOICE

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

3. WARRANTIES

In addition to all warranties, expressed and implied, set forth in Canadian Statutes, which warranties Seller hereby makes to Buyer, Seller further warrants that the goods shall be free from defects in material and/or workmanship and that they conform to all applicable specifications, drawings, samples. All warranties and representations herein expressly made or incorporated by reference shall inure to the benefit of Buyer and its successors or assigns. In addition, Seller warrants that neither the Goods nor fact of Seller providing the Goods to the Buyer violate any statute, ordinance, Canadian or foreign patent or trademark. Seller acknowledges that the Prime Contract has been made available to Seller at Buyer s office located at 69 Elizabeth Avenue St. John s (NL) A1A 1W8.

4. ASSURANCES OF PERFORMANCE

In addition to any other assurances of performance to which Buyer may be entitled under law, Buyer, its designee and/or its Principal shall have the rights to make such inspections of the Seller s facilities and progress of work and/or otherwise make such inquiries of Seller and/or Seller s suppliers or subcontractors to assure themselves that Seller shall be in a position to perform its obligations under the Agreement. Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

Should the Seller fail to perform in strict accordance with the Prime Contract, this Agreement where or as Buyer may so direct, or should the Seller become insolvent, unable to or fail to pay its obligations as they mature, or, in any other respect, fail, in the opinion of Buyer to properly prosecute and perform any part of its works, fail to exert its best performance efforts, be involved in labor disputes, or be terminated under any other contract with Buyer, then the Seller may be deemed by Buyer to have materially breached this Agreement. In case of a breach, as indicated in any part of this Agreement or as might otherwise be determined by law, then Buyer may, at its discretion, terminate this Agreement, or any part thereof by giving written notice thereof to the Seller.

The Seller, on termination, will be deemed to have offered to Buyer an assignment of all of its subcontracts and purchase orders relating to this Project. Buyer may, at its discretion, do whatever is necessary to assure performance of any terminated work, and to take such action, if necessary in the Seller s name. Buyer may withhold from Seller any monies due or to become due under this or any other Agreement to offset the damages incurred or possibly incurred as a result from Seller's breach or threatened breach.

6. CLAIMS

Buyer may, in its discretion, and upon the written request of the Seller, offer reasonable assistance with respect to any affirmative claims by the Seller, (against a party other than Buyer) arising in connection with this Agreement provided Seller is not in default hereunder. In such event, the Seller shall pay all costs attributable thereto and shall render all assistance requested by Buyer, if any. The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

The Seller hereby acknowledges that it has carefully reviewed and examined this Agreement with all of its attachments, and all other documents directly or indirectly relating to this Agreement including without limitation, the Prime Contract and that any and all prior ambiguities and discrepancies have previously been clarified and /or corrected. The Seller agrees that it will not make any claim or demand upon Buyer based upon or arising out of any misunderstanding or misconception on its part of the provisions and requirements of the Prime Contract or the Agreement. Any information given or statements made to the Seller by Buyer or others as to nature or characteristics of work included herein, or as to particular details relating to the Seller s work, shall not reduce the work to be performed by the Seller under this Agreement.

The Seller acknowledges that it has fully examined and analyzed all conditions that could affect the performance of price of this Agreement. In case of any ambiguity or discrepancy in this Agreement, the Seller shall promptly submit the matter to Buyer, in writing, otherwise the Seller will be held solely liable to make any change necessary to correct same. Any decision or adjustment by the Seller without written determination by Buyer shall be at the Seller s sole risk and expense. Any and all decisions by the Principal or relative to any ambiguity or discrepancy shall be binding on the Seller when furnished to the Seller by Buyer. The Seller shall be required to do all things and be bound by all rulings of the Principal to the same extent and degree as Buyer is bound.

8. SUBMITTALS

Seller shall submit shop drawings for approval as required by the Prime Contract. The approval by Buyer, Principal, or any submittals of the Seller shall not relieve it of liability for any deviations from the Prime Contract or this Agreement

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

3. WARRANTIES

In addition to all warranties, expressed and implied, set forth in Canadian Statutes, which warranties Seller hereby makes to Buyer, Seller further warrants that the goods shall be free from defects in material and/or workmanship and that they conform to all applicable specifications, drawings, samples. In addition, Seller warrants that neither the Goods nor fact of Seller providing the Goods to the Buyer violate any statute, ordinance, Canadian or foreign patent or trademark. Seller acknowledges that the Prime Contract has been made available to Seller at Buyer s office located at 69 Elizabeth Avenue St. John s (NL) A1A 1W8.

4. ASSURANCES OF PERFORMANCE

In addition to any other assurances of performance to which Buyer may be entitled under law, Buyer, its designee and/or its Principal shall have the rights to make such inspections of the Seller s facilities and progress of work and/or otherwise make such inquiries of Seller and/or Seller s suppliers or subcontractors to assure themselves that Seller shall be in a position to perform its obligations under the Agreement. Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

Should the Seller fail to perform in strict accordance with the Prime Contract, this Agreement where or as Buyer may so direct, or should the Seller become insolvent, unable to or fail to pay its obligations as they mature, or, in any other respect, fail, in the opinion of Buyer to properly prosecute and perform any part of its works, fail to exert its best performance efforts, be involved in labor disputes, or be terminated under any other contract with Buyer, then the Seller may be deemed by Buyer to have materially breached this Agreement. The Seller, on termination, will be deemed to have offered to Buyer an assignment of all of its subcontracts and purchase orders relating to this Project. Buyer may withhold from Seller any monies due or to become due under this or any other Agreement to offset the damages incurred or possibly incurred as a result from Seller's breach or threatened breach.

6. CLAIMS

Buyer may, in its discretion, and upon the written request of the Seller, offer reasonable assistance with respect to any affirmative claims by the Seller, (against a party other than Buyer) arising in connection with this Agreement provided Seller is not in default hereunder. In such event, the Seller shall pay all costs attributable thereto and shall render all assistance requested by Buyer, if any. The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

The Seller hereby acknowledges that it has carefully reviewed and examined this Agreement with all of its attachments, and all other documents directly or indirectly relating to this Agreement including without limitation, the Prime Contract and that any and all prior ambiguities and discrepancies have previously been clarified and /or corrected. The Seller agrees that it will not make any claim or demand upon Buyer based upon or arising out of any misunderstanding or misconception on its part of the provisions and requirements of the Prime Contract or the Agreement. Any information given or statements made to the Seller by Buyer or others as to nature or characteristics of work included herein, or as to particular details relating to the Seller s work, shall not reduce the work to be performed by the Seller under this Agreement.

The Seller acknowledges that it has fully examined and analyzed all conditions that could affect the performance of price of this Agreement. In case of any ambiguity or discrepancy in this Agreement, the Seller shall promptly submit the matter to Buyer, in writing, otherwise the Seller will be held solely liable to make any change necessary to correct same. Any decision or adjustment by the Seller without written determination by Buyer shall be at the Seller s sole risk and expense. Any and all decisions by the Principal or relative to any ambiguity or discrepancy shall be binding on the Seller when furnished to the Seller by Buyer. Delivery of Goods & Services shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. 1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

3. WARRANTIES

Any information given or statements made to the Seller by Buyer or others as to nature or characteristics of work included herein, or as to particular details relating to the Seller s work, shall not reduce the work to be performed by the Seller under this Agreement.

The Seller acknowledges that it has fully examined and analyzed all conditions that could affect the performance of price of this Agreement. 1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods & Services shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

3. WARRANTIES

In addition to all warranties, expressed and implied, set forth in Canadian Statutes, which warranties Seller hereby makes to Buyer, Seller further warrants that the goods shall be free from defects in material and/or workmanship and that they conform to all applicable specifications, drawings, samples. In addition, Seller warrants that neither the Goods nor fact of Seller providing the Goods to the Buyer violate any statute, ordinance, Canadian or foreign patent or trademark. Seller acknowledges that the Prime Contract has been made available to Seller at Buyer s office located at 780 Brewster Street, Suite 300, Montreal (QC) H4C 2K1.

4. ASSURANCES OF PERFORMANCE

In addition to any other assurances of performance to which Buyer may be entitled under law, Buyer, its designee and/or its Principal shall have the rights to make such inspections of the Seller s facilities and progress of work and/or otherwise make such inquiries of Seller and/or Seller s suppliers or subcontractors to assure themselves that Seller shall be in a position to perform its obligations under the Agreement. Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

Should the Seller fail to perform in strict accordance with the Prime Contract, this Agreement where or as Buyer may so direct, or should the Seller become insolvent, unable to or fail to pay its obligations as they mature, or, in any other respect, fail, in the opinion of Buyer to properly prosecute and perform any part of its works, fail to exert its best performance efforts, be involved in labor disputes, or be terminated under any other contract with Buyer, then the Seller may be deemed by Buyer to have materially breached this Agreement. In case of a breach, as indicated in any part of this Agreement or as might otherwise be determined by law, then Buyer may, at its discretion, terminate this Agreement, or any part thereof by giving written notice thereof to the Seller.

The Seller, on termination, will be deemed to have offered to Buyer an assignment of all of its subcontracts and purchase orders relating to this Project. Buyer may, at its discretion, do whatever is necessary to assure performance of any terminated work, and to take such action, if necessary in the Seller s name. Buyer may withhold from Seller any monies due or to become due under this or any other Agreement to offset the damages incurred or possibly incurred as a result from Seller's breach or threatened breach.

6. CLAIMS

Buyer may, in its discretion, and upon the written request of the Seller, offer reasonable assistance with respect to any affirmative claims by the Seller, (against a party other than Buyer) arising in connection with this Agreement provided Seller is not in default hereunder. In such event, the Seller shall pay all costs attributable thereto and shall render all assistance requested by Buyer, if any. The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

The Seller hereby acknowledges that it has carefully reviewed and examined this Agreement with all of its attachments, and all other documents directly or indirectly relating to this Agreement including without limitation, the Prime Contract and that any and all prior ambiguities and discrepancies have previously been clarified and /or corrected. The Seller agrees that it will not make any claim or demand upon Buyer based upon or arising out of any misunderstanding or misconception on its part of the provisions and requirements of the Prime Contract or the Agreement. Any information given or statements made to the Seller by Buyer or others as to nature or characteristics of work included herein, or as to particular details relating to the Seller s work, shall not reduce the work to be performed by the Seller under this Agreement.

The Seller acknowledges that it has fully examined and analyzed all conditions that could affect the performance of price of this Agreement. In case of any ambiguity or discrepancy in this Agreement, the Seller shall promptly submit the matter to Buyer, in writing, otherwise the Seller will be held solely liable to make any change necessary to correct same. The Seller shall be required to do all things and be bound by all rulings of the Principal to the same extent and degree as Buyer is bound.

8. SUBMITTALS

Seller shall submit shop drawings for approval as required by the Prime Contract. The approval by Buyer, Principal, or any submittals of the Seller shall not relieve it of liability for any deviations from the Prime Contract or this Agreement unless specifically called to Buyer s attention, in writing, and it is then solely acknowledged by Buyer in writing.

9. CONDITIONAL CONTRACT

This Agreement is made conditional upon the approval of the Seller and supplies by the Principal where such approval is required. However, the Seller is responsible to maintain and abide by all statements and quotes given to Buyer, and upon which Buyer is relying.

10. DAMAGES & REMEDIES

In addition to any other measure of damages or remedy available at law in equity, Buyer shall be entitled to recover from Seller all costs, disbursements and expense, including attorney s fees at trial and all levels of appeals, incurred as a result of: (a) Seller s breach or threatened breach of any terms, warranty or condition of this Agreement, or (b) Buyer s having to defend itself or participate in any action or proceeding that directly or indirectly relates to acts or omissions of Seller or its subcontractors or suppliers. Buyer at all times shall have the right to set off or deduct from amount owed to Seller any amount that Seller may owe to Buyer under any provision of this Agreement.

of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

3. WARRANTIES

In addition to all warranties, expressed and implied, set forth in Canadian Statutes, which warranties Seller hereby makes to Buyer, Seller further warrants that the goods shall be free from defects in material and/or workmanship and that they conform to all applicable specifications, drawings, samples. All warranties and representations herein expressly made or incorporated by reference shall inure to the benefit of Buyer and its successors or assigns. In addition, Seller warrants that neither the Goods nor fact of Seller providing the Goods to the Buyer violate any statute, ordinance, Canadian or foreign patent or trademark. Seller acknowledges that the Prime Contract has been made available to Seller at Buyer s office located at 780 Brewster Street, Suite 300, Montreal (QC) H4C 2K1.

4. ASSURANCES OF PERFORMANCE

In addition to any other assurances of performance to which Buyer may be entitled under law, Buyer, its designee and/or its Principal shall have the rights to make such inspections of the Seller s facilities and progress of work and/or otherwise make such inquiries of Seller and/or Seller s suppliers or subcontractors to assure themselves that Seller shall be in a position to perform its obligations under the Agreement. Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

Should the Seller fail to perform in strict accordance with the Prime Contract, this Agreement where or as Buyer may so direct, or should the Seller become insolvent, unable to or fail to pay its obligations as they mature, or, in any other respect, fail, in the opinion of Buyer to properly prosecute and perform any part of its works, fail to exert its best performance efforts, be involved in labor disputes, or be terminated under any other contract with Buyer, then the Seller may be deemed by Buyer to have materially breached this Agreement. In case of a breach, as indicated in any part of this Agreement or as might otherwise be determined by law, then Buyer may, at its discretion, terminate this Agreement, or any part thereof by giving written notice thereof to the Seller.

The Seller, on termination, will be deemed to have offered to Buyer an assignment of all of its subcontracts and purchase orders relating to this Project. Buyer may, at its discretion, do whatever is necessary to assure performance of any terminated work, and to take such action, if necessary in the Seller s name. Buyer may withhold from Seller any monies due or to become due under this or any other Agreement to offset the damages incurred or possibly incurred as a result from Seller's breach or threatened breach.

6. CLAIMS

Buyer may, in its discretion, and upon the written request of the Seller, offer reasonable assistance with respect to any affirmative claims by the Seller, (against a party other than Buyer) arising in connection with this Agreement provided Seller is not in default hereunder. In such event, the Seller shall pay all costs attributable thereto and shall render all assistance requested by Buyer, if any. The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

The Seller hereby acknowledges that it has carefully reviewed and examined this Agreement with all of its attachments, and

For the consideration recited herein and the sum of Ten Dollars (10.00), the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged the Seller has agreed to indemnify the indemnities from liability for damages to persons or property caused, in whole or in part by any act, omission of default of the Buyer (including its partners and their officers, agents, servants, and employees) as aforesaid if an insurance schedule is attached, Seller agrees to maintain insurance in the amount and in accordance with schedule requirements.

The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

6. CLAIMS

The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

The Seller agrees that it will not make any claim or demand upon Buyer based upon or arising out of any misunderstanding or misconception on its part of the provisions and requirements of the Prime Contract or the Agreement. Any information given or statements made to the Seller by Buyer or others as to nature or characteristics of work included herein, or as to particular details relating to the Seller s work, shall not reduce the work to be performed by the Seller under this Agreement.

The Seller acknowledges that it has fully examined and analyzed all conditions that could affect the performance of price of this Agreement. In case of any ambiguity or discrepancy in this Agreement, the Seller shall promptly submit the matter to Buyer, in writing, otherwise the Seller will be held solely liable to make any change necessary to correct same. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

The Seller, on termination, will be deemed to have offered to Buyer an assignment of all of its subcontracts and purchase orders relating to this Project. Buyer may, at its discretion, do whatever is necessary to assure performance of any terminated work, and to take such action, if necessary in the Seller s name. Buyer may withhold from Seller any monies due or to become due under this or any other Agreement to offset the damages incurred or possibly incurred as a result from Seller's breach or threatened breach.

6. CLAIMS

Buyer may, in its discretion, and upon the written request of the Seller, offer reasonable assistance with respect to any affirmative claims by the Seller, (against a party other than Buyer) arising in connection with this Agreement provided Seller is not in default hereunder. In such event, the Seller shall pay all costs attributable thereto and shall render all assistance requested by Buyer, if any. The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

The Seller agrees that it will not make any claim or demand upon Buyer based upon or arising out of any misunderstanding or misconception on its part of the provisions and requirements of the Prime Contract or the Agreement. Any information given or statements made to the Seller by Buyer or others as to nature or characteristics of work included herein, or as to particular details relating to the Seller s work, shall not reduce the work to be performed by the Seller under this Agreement.

The Seller acknowledges that it has fully examined and analyzed all conditions that could affect the performance of price of this Agreement. In case of any ambiguity or discrepancy in this Agreement, the Seller shall promptly submit the matter to Buyer, in writing, otherwise the Seller will be held solely liable to make any change necessary to correct same. Any decision or adjustment by the Seller without written determination by Buyer shall be at the Seller s sole risk and expense. Any and all decisions by the Principal or relative to any ambiguity or discrepancy shall be binding on the Seller when furnished to the Seller by Buyer. The Seller shall be required to do all things and be bound by all rulings of the Principal to the same extent and degree as Buyer is bound.

8. SUBMITTALS

Seller shall submit shop drawings for approval as required by the Prime Contract. The approval by Buyer, Principal, or any submittals of the Seller shall not relieve it of liability for any deviations from the Prime Contract or this Agreement

Fare Rules Summary

- Voluntary changes to your itinerary may require the payment of additional fees and fare upgrades.
- If you are travelling on a non-refundable ticket, Air Canada will be unable to make exceptions in the event of an unexpected trip cancellation or medical emergency. We recommend the purchase of travel insurance.
- Tickets are non transferable.
- Seat selection charges are per passenger and apply to each individual one-way flight segment in your itinerary. Flight segments are identified by a change in flight number, with each new flight number representing a flight segment. Taxes are not included.
- Please note that you may be moved from your selected seat without notice in the event of an involuntary schedule or airport change (e.g. flight disruption, cancellation), to accommodate a passenger with a disability, or for any other reason that requires Air Canada to move you prior to departure or during the flight. If you are moved from your seat for one of these reasons, you may request a refund for your seat charges. We invite you to read additional terms and conditions related to seat selection

IN ADDITION TO A SIGNED COPY OF THE ASTALDI CANADA PURCHASE ORDER, WHEN SUBMITTING INVOICE.

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods, Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. 1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable.

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable.

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable.

The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

The Seller hereby acknowledges that it has carefully reviewed and examined this Agreement with all of its attachments, and all other documents directly or indirectly relating to this Agreement including without limitation, the Prime Contract and that any and all prior ambiguities and discrepancies have previously been clarified and /or corrected. Any information given or statements made to the Seller by Buyer or others as to nature or characteristics of work included herein, or as to particular details relating to the Seller s work, shall not reduce the work to be performed by the Seller under this Agreement.

The Seller acknowledges that it has fully examined and analyzed all conditions that could affect the performance of price

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable.

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. 1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

3. WARRANTIES

In addition to all warranties, expressed and implied, set forth in Canadian Statutes, which warranties Seller hereby makes to Buyer, Seller further warrants that the goods shall be free from defects in material and/or workmanship and that they conform to all applicable specifications, drawings, samples. All warranties and representations herein expressly made or incorporated by reference shall inure to the benefit of Buyer and its successors or assigns. In addition, Seller warrants that neither the Goods nor fact of Seller providing the Goods to the Buyer violate any statute, ordinance, Canadian or foreign patent or trademark. Seller acknowledges that the Prime Contract has been made available to Seller at Buyer s office located at 69 Elizabeth Avenue St. John s (NL) A1A 1W8.

4. ASSURANCES OF PERFORMANCE

In addition to any other assurances of performance to which Buyer may be entitled under law, Buyer, its designee and/or its Principal shall have the rights to make such inspections of the Seller s facilities and progress of work and/or otherwise make such inquiries of Seller and/or Seller s suppliers or subcontractors to assure themselves that Seller shall be in a position to perform its obligations under the Agreement. Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

Should the Seller fail to perform in strict accordance with the Prime Contract, this Agreement where or as Buyer may so direct, or should the Seller become insolvent, unable to or fail to pay its obligations as they mature, or, in any other respect, fail, in the opinion of Buyer to properly prosecute and perform any part of its works, fail to exert its best performance efforts, be involved in labor disputes, or be terminated under any other contract with Buyer, then the Seller may be deemed by Buyer to have materially breached this Agreement. In case of a breach, as indicated in any part of this Agreement or as might otherwise be determined by law, then Buyer may, at its discretion, terminate this Agreement, or any part thereof by giving written notice thereof to the Seller.

The Seller, on termination, will be deemed to have offered to Buyer an assignment of all of its subcontracts and purchase orders relating to this Project. Buyer may, at its discretion, do whatever is necessary to assure performance of any terminated work, and to take such action, if necessary in the Seller s name. Buyer may withhold from Seller any monies due or to become due under this or any other Agreement to offset the damages incurred or possibly incurred as a result from Seller's breach or threatened breach.

6. CLAIMS

Buyer may, in its discretion, and upon the written request of the Seller, offer reasonable assistance with respect to any affirmative claims by the Seller, (against a party other than Buyer) arising in connection with this Agreement provided Seller is not in default hereunder. In such event, the Seller shall pay all costs attributable thereto and shall render all assistance requested by Buyer, if any. The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. 1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due

Delivery of Goods & Services shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage,

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods & Services shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage,

Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

Should the Seller fail to perform in strict accordance with the Prime Contract, this Agreement where or as Buyer may so direct, or should the Seller become insolvent, unable to or fail to pay its obligations as they mature, or, in any other respect, fail, in the opinion of Buyer to properly prosecute and perform any part of its works; fail to exert its best performance efforts, be involved in labor disputes, or be terminated under any other contract with Buyer, then the Seller may be deemed by Buyer to have materially breached this Agreement. 6. CLAIMS

Buyer may, in its discretion, and upon the written request of the Seller, offer reasonable assistance with respect to any affirmative claims by the Seller, (against a party other than Buyer) arising in connection with this Agreement provided Seller is not in default hereunder. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

Good morning,

I just want to let you know that PO's are pay in a different way and I will remove it from the Application (It is still payable but not through a Payment Certificate) and Guillaume will explain you how to send it ,so it can be process and pay to DOKA. This process is obviously applicable to any PO in the future.

The new Total to be included in the Payment for Dec 2016 will be $962,450.76+Taxes and the Invoice 442017044 of $16,195.00+Taxes.

Regards

Hi Danilo,

Here's the invoices for the February 2017 Payment Certificate. I've added invoice 442018387 and 442018390 signed by Georges this Month.

The credits 442018557 and 442018558 were already taken to balance the payment certificates for October and November. Those costs were embedded in the large Rental invoices and since the finance department can't split an invoice they had to pay it fully and apply those credits right away so it balance with the payment certificates. That's why I won't apply them to any payment certificate since they're already processed/balanced.

Most of the "awaiting credit from Doka" you see below will be included in the March invoice summary.

So this month Payment Certificate is the following:

TOTAL: 1,205,919.01$ NET

Past Summary:

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods & Services shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

3. WARRANTIES

In addition to all warranties, expressed and implied, set forth in Canadian Statutes, which warranties Seller hereby makes to Buyer, Seller further warrants that the goods shall be free from defects in material and/or workmanship and that they conform to all applicable specifications, drawings, samples. Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

Should the Seller fail to perform in strict accordance with the Prime Contract, this Agreement where or as Buyer may so direct, or should the Seller become insolvent, unable to or fail to pay its obligations as they mature, or, in any other respect, fail, in the opinion of Buyer to properly prosecute and perform any part of its works, fail to exert its best performance efforts, be involved in labor disputes, or be terminated under any other contract with Buyer, then the Seller may be deemed by Buyer to have materially breached this Agreement. In case of a breach, as indicated in any part of this Agreement or as might otherwise be determined by law, then Buyer may, at its discretion, terminate this Agreement, or any part thereof by giving written notice thereof to the Seller.

The Seller, on termination, will be deemed to have offered to Buyer an assignment of all of its subcontracts and purchase orders relating to this Project. Buyer may, at its discretion, do whatever is necessary to assure performance of any terminated work, and to take such action, if necessary in the Seller s name. Buyer may withhold from Seller any monies due or to become due under this or any other Agreement to offset the damages incurred or possibly incurred as a result from Seller's breach or threatened breach.

6. CLAIMS

Buyer may, in its discretion, and upon the written request of the Seller, offer reasonable assistance with respect to any affirmative claims by the Seller, (against a party other than Buyer) arising in connection with this Agreement provided Seller is not in default hereunder. In such event, the Seller shall pay all costs attributable thereto and shall render all assistance requested by Buyer, if any. The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

The Seller hereby acknowledges that it has carefully reviewed and examined this Agreement with all of its attachments, and all other documents directly or indirectly relating to this Agreement including without limitation, the Prime Contract and that any and all prior ambiguities and discrepancies have previously been clarified and /or corrected. The Seller agrees that it will not make any claim or demand upon Buyer based upon or arising out of any misunderstanding or misconception on

The Seller acknowledges that it has fully examined and analyzed all conditions that could affect the performance of price of this Agreement. In case of any ambiguity or discrepancy in this Agreement, the Seller shall promptly submit the matter to Buyer, in writing, otherwise the Seller will be held solely liable to make any change necessary to correct same. Any decision or adjustment by the Seller without written determination by Buyer shall be at the Seller s sole risk and expense. Any and all decisions by the Principal or relative to any ambiguity or discrepancy shall be binding on the Seller when furnished to the Seller by Buyer. The Seller shall be required to do all things and be bound by all rulings of the Principal to the same extent and degree as Buyer is bound.

8. SUBMITTALS

Seller shall submit shop drawings for approval as required by the Prime Contract. The approval by Buyer, Principal, or any submittals of the Seller shall not relieve it of liability for any deviations from the Prime Contract or this Agreement unless specifically called to Buyer s attention, in writing, and it is then solely acknowledged by Buyer in writing.

9. CONDITIONAL CONTRACT

This Agreement is made conditional upon the approval of the Seller and supplies by the Principal where such approval is required. However, the Seller is responsible to maintain and abide by all statements and quotes given to Buyer, and upon which Buyer is relying.

Buyer at all times shall have the right to set off or deduct from amount owed to Seller any amount that Seller may owe to Buyer under any provision of this Agreement.

11. INDEMNIFICATION

The Seller agrees to indemnify and save harmless Buyer, its partners and their officers, agents, servants, employees and each of them (hereinafter individually and collectively the indemnities ), from and against and all claims made or asserted for any damage or injury of any kind or nature whatsoever (including death resulting there from) to any person or property including, without limitation, claims for damage or injury to any employees of the Seller, its subcontractors or otherwise, which claims are resulting from, arising out of, or occurring in connection with the execution of this Agreement, whether or not such claims are based upon indemnities alleged active or passive negligence, alleged strict liability in tort or participation in the wrong or upon any alleged breach of any statutory duty or obligation on the part of indemnities (regardless of the percentage or degree that the conduct of indemnities contributed to the loss in question) and further from and against all loss, costs, expense, liability, damage or injury, including legal fees, that indemnities may directly or indirectly sustain, suffer or incur as a result thereof and the Seller agrees to and does hereby assume, on behalf of indemnities the defense of any action at law or in equity which may be brought against indemnities by reason of such claims, loss, costs, expense, liability damage or injury, including legal fees or disbursements. For the consideration recited herein and the sum of Ten Dollars (10.00), the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged the Seller has agreed to indemnify the indemnities from liability for damages to persons or property caused, in whole or in part by any act, omission of default of the Buyer (including its partners and their officers, agents, servants, and employees) as aforesaid if an insurance schedule is attached, Seller agrees to maintain insurance in the amount and in accordance with schedule requirements.

12. MISCELLANEOUS

All words and terms in this Agreement shall have the meanings given them under Canadian law unless otherwise defined herein. If any invalidity is found, it shall not affect the enforceability and validity of the rest of this Agreement. In the event of a conflict between the terms and provisions of this Agreement and the terms and provisions of the Prime Contract, the latter shall control.

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods & Services shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

Should the Seller fail to perform in strict accordance with the Prime Contract, this Agreement where or as Buyer may so direct, or should the Seller become insolvent, unable to or fail to pay its obligations as they mature, or, in any other respect, fail, in the opinion of Buyer to properly prosecute and perform any part of its works, fail to exert its best performance efforts, be involved in labor disputes, or be terminated under any other contract with Buyer, then the Seller may be deemed by Buyer to have materially breached this Agreement. 1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods & Services shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

Should the Seller fail to perform in strict accordance with the Prime Contract, this Agreement where or as Buyer may so direct, or should the Seller become insolvent, unable to or fail to pay its obligations as they mature, or, in any other respect, fail, in the opinion of Buyer to properly prosecute and perform any part of its works, fail to exert its best performance efforts, be involved in labor disputes, or be terminated under any other contract with Buyer, then the Seller may be deemed by Buyer to have materially breached this Agreement. The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

The Seller hereby acknowledges that it has carefully reviewed and examined this Agreement with all of its attachments, and all other documents directly or indirectly relating to this Agreement including without limitation, the Prime Contract and that any and all prior ambiguities and discrepancies have previously been clarified and /or corrected. Any information given or statements made to the Seller by Buyer or others as to nature or characteristics of work included herein, or as to particular details relating to the Seller s work, shall not reduce the work to be performed by the Seller under this Agreement.

The Seller acknowledges that it has fully examined and analyzed all conditions that could affect the performance of price of this Agreement. In case of any ambiguity or discrepancy in this Agreement, the Seller shall promptly submit the matter to Buyer, in writing, otherwise the Seller will be held solely liable to make any change necessary to correct same. In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

3. WARRANTIES

In addition to all warranties, expressed and implied, set forth in Canadian Statutes, which warranties Seller hereby makes to Buyer, Seller further warrants that the goods shall be free from defects in material and/or workmanship and that they

Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

In case of a breach, as indicated in any part of this Agreement or as might otherwise be determined by law, then Buyer may, at its discretion, terminate this Agreement, or any part thereof by giving written notice thereof to the Seller.

The Seller, on termination, will be deemed to have offered to Buyer an assignment of all of its subcontracts and purchase orders relating to this Project. Buyer may, at its discretion, do whatever is necessary to assure performance of any terminated work, and to take such action, if necessary in the Seller s name. Buyer may withhold from Seller any monies due or to become due under this or any other Agreement to offset the damages incurred or possibly incurred as a result from Seller's breach or threatened breach.

6. CLAIMS

Buyer may, in its discretion, and upon the written request of the Seller, offer reasonable assistance with respect to any affirmative claims by the Seller, (against a party other than Buyer) arising in connection with this Agreement provided Seller is not in default hereunder. In such event, the Seller shall pay all costs attributable thereto and shall render all assistance requested by Buyer, if any. The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

The Seller hereby acknowledges that it has carefully reviewed and examined this Agreement with all of its attachments, and all other documents directly or indirectly relating to this Agreement including without limitation, the Prime Contract and that any and all prior ambiguities and discrepancies have previously been clarified and /or corrected. The Seller agrees that it will not make any claim or demand upon Buyer based upon or arising out of any misunderstanding or misconception on its part of the provisions and requirements of the Prime Contract or the Agreement. Any information given or statements made to the Seller by Buyer or others as to nature or characteristics of work included herein, or as to particular details relating to the Seller s work, shall not reduce the work to be performed by the Seller under this Agreement.

The Seller acknowledges that it has fully examined and analyzed all conditions that could affect the performance of price of this Agreement. In case of any ambiguity or discrepancy in this Agreement, the Seller shall promptly submit the matter to Buyer, in writing, otherwise the Seller will be held solely liable to make any change necessary to correct same. Any decision or adjustment by the Seller without written determination by Buyer shall be at the Seller s sole risk and expense. Any and all decisions by the Principal or relative to any ambiguity or discrepancy shall be binding on the Seller when furnished to the Seller by Buyer. The Seller shall be required to do all things and be bound by all rulings of the

Delivery of Goods & Services shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods & Services shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

4. ASSURANCES OF PERFORMANCE

In addition to any other assurances of performance to which Buyer may be entitled under law, Buyer, its designee and/or its Principal shall have the rights to make such inspections of the Seller s facilities and progress of work and/or otherwise make such inquiries of Seller and/or Seller s suppliers or subcontractors to assure themselves that Seller shall be in a position to perform its obligations under the Agreement. Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

Should the Seller fail to perform in strict accordance with the Prime Contract, this Agreement where or as Buyer may so direct, or should the Seller become insolvent, unable to or fail to pay its obligations as they mature, or, in any other respect, fail, in the opinion of Buyer to properly prosecute and perform any part of its works, fail to exert its best performance efforts, be involved in labor disputes, or be terminated under any other contract with Buyer, then the Seller may be deemed by Buyer to have materially breached this Agreement. In case of a breach, as indicated in any part of this Agreement or as might otherwise be determined by law, then Buyer may, at its discretion, terminate this Agreement, or any part thereof by giving written notice thereof to the Seller.

The Seller, on termination, will be deemed to have offered to Buyer an assignment of all of its subcontracts and purchase orders relating to this Project. In such event, the Seller shall pay all costs attributable thereto and shall render all assistance requested by Buyer, if any. The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods & Services shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

3. WARRANTIES

In addition to all warranties, expressed and implied, set forth in Canadian Statutes, which warranties Seller hereby makes to Buyer, Seller further warrants that the goods shall be free from defects in material and/or workmanship and that they

4. ASSURANCES OF PERFORMANCE

In addition to any other assurances of performance to which Buyer may be entitled under law, Buyer, its designee and/or its Principal shall have the rights to make such inspections of the Seller s facilities and progress of work and/or otherwise make such inquiries of Seller and/or Seller s suppliers or subcontractors to assure themselves that Seller shall be in a position to perform its obligations under the Agreement. Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

Should the Seller fail to perform in strict accordance with the Prime Contract, this Agreement where or as Buyer may so direct, or should the Seller become insolvent, unable to or fail to pay its obligations as they mature, or, in any other respect, fail, in the opinion of Buyer to properly prosecute and perform any part of its works, fail to exert its best performance efforts, be involved in labor disputes, or be terminated under any other contract with Buyer, then the Seller may be deemed by Buyer to have materially breached this Agreement. In case of a breach, as indicated in any part of this Agreement or as might otherwise be determined by law, then Buyer may, at its discretion, terminate this Agreement, or any part thereof by giving written notice thereof to the Seller.

The Seller, on termination, will be deemed to have offered to Buyer an assignment of all of its subcontracts and purchase orders relating to this Project. Buyer may, at its discretion, do whatever is necessary to assure performance of any terminated work, and to take such action, if necessary in the Seller s name. In such event, the Seller shall pay all costs attributable thereto and shall render all assistance requested by Buyer, if any. The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

The Seller hereby acknowledges that it has carefully reviewed and examined this Agreement with all of its attachments, and all other documents directly or indirectly relating to this Agreement including without limitation, the Prime Contract and that any and all prior ambiguities and discrepancies have previously been clarified and /or corrected. The Seller agrees that it will not make any claim or demand upon Buyer based upon or arising out of any misunderstanding or misconception on its part of the provisions and requirements of the Prime Contract or the Agreement. Any information given or statements made to the Seller by Buyer or others as to nature or characteristics of work included herein, or as to particular details relating to the Seller s work, shall not reduce the work to be performed by the Seller under this Agreement.

The Seller acknowledges that it has fully examined and analyzed all conditions that could affect the performance of price of this Agreement. In case of any ambiguity or discrepancy in this Agreement, the Seller shall promptly submit the matter to Buyer, in writing, otherwise the Seller will be held solely liable to make any change necessary to correct same. Any decision or adjustment by the Seller without written determination by Buyer shall be at the Seller s sole risk and expense. 1. DELIVERY, TIME AND MANNER, PRIME CONTRACT

Delivery of Goods & Services shall be made at the location herein specified during regular business hours unless the parties agree to another time of delivery. Seller shall notify Buyer by telephone of the expected time of delivery as soon as such a time can be reasonably determined. All Goods and/or any container in which Goods are delivered shall be accompanied by or have affixed hereto a detailed packing list or lists. Seller acknowledges that he Goods are being ordered in connection with a construction project and other building projects (The Project ) for which Buyer is under contract (the Prime Contract ) with either private owners or governmental institutions, (hereinafter collectively referred to as the Principal ), and further acknowledges that Seller s ability to perform its other obligations with respect to the Project is therefore, a primary basis for the bargain represented by the Agreement.

In light of the foregoing facts known to Seller, Buyer shall have the option to immediately cancel this Agreement if delivery of the Goods is not made when required by Buyer (time being of the essence) and failure of timely delivery as set forth in this Agreement shall be a breach of this Agreement, regardless of the cause of such failure. Seller further agrees that Buyer may, when coordination of construction operations for the Project necessitates, require changes to the schedule for delivery of the Goods. In the event the Prime Contract is terminated for any reason other than a default by Buyer, the Agreement shall terminate and Buyer shall be relieved of any liability of duty to Seller. Seller in accepting this order, agrees to abide by all the terms and conditions contained herein or in the Prime Contract (as same may affect Buyer or Seller) including without limitation, all specifications attached hereto and set forth in the Prime Contract.

2. ACCEPTANCE OF GOODS, REVOCATION

Buyer shall have a period of ten days following the date of delivery of the Goods within which cause said Goods to be inspected and to notify Seller of an intention to reject all or any portion of the Goods for failure to said goods or their tender of delivery to conform to this Agreement. Express notice of acceptance to Seller during said ten days shall constitute acceptance of said Goods. Risk of loss and title to the Goods shall pass from Seller to Buyer only upon acceptance of the Goods. Buyer exercise of any right of inspection prior to delivery shall not affect the right of inspection following delivery, nor shall the conclusion of any inspection after delivery or the payment of all or any part of the Purchase Price be deemed acceptance of the Goods. Buyer shall have the rights to reject all or any portion of the Goods, to revoke acceptance of the Goods and to seek any remedy for breach of the Agreement notwithstanding acceptance of the Goods, as such rights may be granted by Canadian law or any other statute or granted and/or broadened by this Agreement. In the event that Buyer rejects or revokes acceptance of all or any portion of the Goods.

Buyer may in addition to rights to resale as provided by law, arrange for the return of such Goods to the point of origin of Seller s delivery, with the cost of such return to be paid by Seller to Buyer with reimbursement for the cost of storage, purchase price and taxes, if any, already paid by Buyer for such returned Goods. Payment by Seller hereunder shall be due and payable to Buyer within ten days of notice of rejection or revocation of acceptance. Notwithstanding anything therein to the contrary, if during period set forth in the Prime Contract, the Principal determines that any goods provided by Seller are non-conforming to the standards and specifications of the Prime Agreement, regardless of whether Buyer has had an opportunity to discover or should have discovered any such non-conformity or whether such Goods have been incorporated into the Project or their condition has otherwise changed to such an extent that their return to Seller is impracticable. Seller shall be in breach of this Agreement and Buyer s rights shall include such remedies and damages for breach in regard to accepted goods or in regard to rejected goods.

3. WARRANTIES

In addition to all warranties, expressed and implied, set forth in Canadian Statutes, which warranties Seller hereby makes to Buyer, Seller further warrants that the goods shall be free from defects in material and/or workmanship and that they

4. ASSURANCES OF PERFORMANCE

In addition to any other assurances of performance to which Buyer may be entitled under law, Buyer, its designee and/or its Principal shall have the rights to make such inspections of the Seller s facilities and progress of work and/or otherwise make such inquiries of Seller and/or Seller s suppliers or subcontractors to assure themselves that Seller shall be in a position to perform its obligations under the Agreement. Such right of inspection and inquiry shall in no way diminish, limit or constitute a waiver of any of Seller s obligations, representations or warranties under this Agreement, nor shall said right preclude or otherwise adversely affect any other rights of inspection available to Buyer.

5. TERMINATION

Should the Seller fail to perform in strict accordance with the Prime Contract, this Agreement where or as Buyer may so direct, or should the Seller become insolvent, unable to or fail to pay its obligations as they mature, or, in any other respect, fail, in the opinion of Buyer to properly prosecute and perform any part of its works, fail to exert its best performance efforts, be involved in labor disputes, or be terminated under any other contract with Buyer, then the Seller may be deemed by Buyer to have materially breached this Agreement. In case of a breach, as indicated in any part of this Agreement or as might otherwise be determined by law, then Buyer may, at its discretion, terminate this Agreement, or any part thereof by giving written notice thereof to the Seller.

The Seller, on termination, will be deemed to have offered to Buyer an assignment of all of its subcontracts and purchase orders relating to this Project. Buyer may, at its discretion, do whatever is necessary to assure performance of any terminated work, and to take such action, if necessary in the Seller s name. 6. CLAIMS

Buyer may, in its discretion, and upon the written request of the Seller, offer reasonable assistance with respect to any affirmative claims by the Seller, (against a party other than Buyer) arising in connection with this Agreement provided Seller is not in default hereunder. In such event, the Seller shall pay all costs attributable thereto and shall render all assistance requested by Buyer, if any. The Seller shall be bound by the determination of the Principal, or in the event of an appeal of further action or proceeding by the determination of same, and shall be entitled only to its proportionate share of any actual net recovery less overhead and profit to Buyer and less Buyer s expenses and attorney s fees in handling said matter.

The Seller hereby waives and releases any and all claims of actions, and rights to further payment beyond the Agreement amount, except as Buyer may receive funds of extensions of time from the Principal. The Seller shall post whatever security may be required by Buyer to cover Buyer s cost and expenses, including attorney s fees, prior to and as a condition to Buyer s proceeding on the Seller s behalf.

7. MUTUALITY OF DOCUMENTS

The Seller hereby acknowledges that it has carefully reviewed and examined this Agreement with all of its attachments, and all other documents directly or indirectly relating to this Agreement including without limitation, the Prime Contract and that any and all prior ambiguities and discrepancies have previously been clarified and /or corrected. Any information given or statements made to the Seller by Buyer or others as to nature or characteristics of work included herein, or as to particular details relating to the Seller s work, shall not reduce the work to be performed by the Seller under this Agreement.

The Seller acknowledges that it has fully examined and analyzed all conditions that could affect the performance of price of this Agreement. In case of any ambiguity or discrepancy in this Agreement, the Seller shall promptly submit the matter to Buyer, in writing, otherwise the Seller will be held solely liable to make any change necessary to correct same. Any decision or adjustment by the Seller without written determination by Buyer shall be at the Seller s sole risk and expense.
