Lol !

On a serious note. The agreement reached with Nalcor is that Government (and EY) are strictly observers during the IE site visit. We are not to question or comment.... I would even go so far to decline comment if asked. You will be paired up with a representative from Government (I think Glen Grandy, P Eng), and we will all (Gov and EY) circle back later this week to debrief your observations.

Good luck my friend!

Regards,

Dave

Dear Craig,

I have flights getting in around 10 tonight to Goose Bay and am currently booked to be staying at the Labrador Inn at Goose Bay.

Will be climbing on a plane shortly... but have copied my EA who can work with our travel office if changes need to be made.

It would be good to know time, location to arrive at and updated details of itinerary.

(And per David's email, I have packed hard hat, work boots and reflective jacket if required)

Cheers,

Richard

Hi Craig, on it. I don't have Richards cell phone number handy, as I cannot connect tonight, but I have asked him to send this to you. I do know that Richard has a hard hat and safety boots that he will bring with him. Thank you.

David,

What is Richard's:
- Official title
- cell #
- e-mail address

So I can forward to Jim Meaney to confirm his attendance.

Also, does he have his own safety boots he'll bring or will Nalcor need to have them available for him.

Please advise.

Thanks

Craig
