Subject: quick chat with Craig tomorrow?

Hello Richard,

Just talked to Craig.

RFP is coming out Wednesday or Thursday.

In the meantime, he is looking at a document that is demonstrating the projects Earned Value. It is derived from the IPS (one overall, and 3 sub projects). Currently, it appears the Earned Value is being derived directly from project schedule and not project cost. There is a weighting there that he thinks could be the cost factor. Anyhow, he indicated that he'd like to have a quick chat with you on the topic, as he is in the process of drafting an email to Nalcor.

Are you available for 15 mins tomorrow? Anytime, he said he is flexible?

Regards,

Dave
