Ok, sounds good. I am sure they will come up with a reason for each of the items highlighted.... And thought we could get to it.

David

Sorry David... But we first need to qualify the commercial sensitivity with Nalcor

We don't know what Nalcor's thinking is for a majority (10/11) of items requested to be removed by Nalcor and identified commercially sensitive ... we can hypothesize... but it is not clear why they see them as such.

Their removal would substantially alter the quality of the content... if we don't understand their alleged point of sensitivity we will also get into a back and forth updates and reedits.

Keen to help... but we need Nalcor to qualify why/in what way they see the sensitivity in order for us to do the right thing in the report.

Best regards,

Richard

Hello Richard,

Attached is the report (for OC), most current version (final draft). Could you work from this one to establish a second report (for public consumption), recognizing some of the sensitivities (commercial) raised by Nalcor? I talked to Charles-Antoine on this and he agreed that this may be the best solution. Look forward to your thoughts on this.

Regards,

David
