Hi Craig,

We had determined that 2 reports is an option. We were waiting for Nalcor to provide additional detail on the rationale for the positions they have taken against our report (i.e. commercial sensitivity). Their response will influence the approach taken in the reports. Was this requested of Nalcor – I thought it was?

In the meantime, we will finalize the drafts of the two reports. Thank you.

Regards,

David

Hey David,

Sorry, been tied up in other files this last few weeks. No specific direction at this stage. My understanding was that you were looking at preparing two separate reports (one with the confidential info and one without) in order to address the Commercial Sensitivity concerns raised.

Is that what you have prepared at this stage? If so, need current drafts to recirculate to Nalcor on the Commercial Sensitivity to get their feedback issue prior to finalizing.

Please advise.

Craig
