Subject: Message to Nalcor

Just spoke to Tim. The Government's message to Nalcor was just that it isn't ready to issue the EY report this week (the truth). That should be our understanding if asked.

Also, if asked, we should say that we have no visibility on what the issue date might ultimately be (because that is true also).

It was also mentioned to Nalcor that because Nalcor has its AGM this week, it isn't a good week to issue anyway. We should have no need to mention this to anyone at Nalcor I imagine.

Any questions, give me a call.

Paul
