Hi Kirsten,

Believe me, we have tried with new clerk, and other key government officials. They don't want to go there right now. It might come around once they have a final deal with Astaldi or its replacement. That is what they told the media a month or so ago. David, do you agree we should not press too hard again so soon?

Paul

Hi there – wanted to see where we are at in terms of trying to move some things along with Stan (Nalcor) to get us an ongoing role in derisking the program.

Also wondered if we have any briefings set up with Julia's replacement (I think you know him well Paul?)

Pls let me know how I can help. Would be good to secure our position with these folks sooner rather than later.

Many thanks!

KT
