Hi Paul,

Thanks for the update.

I'm in Ireland meeting the client tomorrow, so the net is closing. I won't tell my son about the flippers ☺

Hope you get some positive news on this soon.

Tim

Subject: Update re Muskrat Falls

I just called Walter Parsons, ADM of Energy for an update. He kindly advised as follows:

- 1) He chatted with the Clerk last Friday
- 2) Clerk well aware it is on the Premier's desk and that it needs to come to a conclusion
- 3) Premier has posed some questions to Nalcor and waiting for a response before he can make a final decision
- 4) Clerk thanked Walter for prompting him, said he knows it is a priority, that he totally gets it ...
- 5) The Minister knows it will come up in the House very soon, knows it has to get started
- 6) He would be shocked if it drags on more than one or two weeks
- 7) There has been a bit of a bottle neck the past couple of weeks getting info out of Nalcor

In summary, it looks like the intent is still there but that it is but one of a multitude of major issues on the Premier's desk that he is dealing with in his usual deliberate, but not speedy, manner.

Tim, has that other file nabbed you yet? (It won't be as much fun as this one. Also, the swiling season opens up in April so you should be here in good time for a nice meal of flippers!)

All the best.

Paul
