Mr. Learmonth:

As discussed a few minutes ago, below is an email sent to me on the evening of Thursday March 28, 2019. I read this email on Friday March 29, 2019 and instructed my client accordingly.

The email is a copy of a text message that was sent last Thursday evening from Mr. Meaney directly to my client and concerns my client's upcoming testimony at the inquiry. In my opinion, this text message is inappropriate and I have been instructed to bring this to your attention to address accordingly with the Commissioner.

If you require any further details they can be provided.

Yours truly

Andrew A. Fitzgerald

From Jim Meany just now

In Derrick's testimony today Learmonth mentioned that a number of folks who were senior civil servants at the time of Financial Close in Nov 2013 said in their interviews they don't recall being told about the $6.5B capital cost estimate. Of course Dalley and Davis have already claimed the same at the Inquiry. I know who has been interviewed and that we spent ALOT of time with some, including yourself, during that period. I sure hope you are not one of the folks who suddenly have amnesia from that time....that wouldn't seem to me to be the "Shareholder" I've always respected.
